VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN ACT

In an effort to reduce domestic abuse and to provide housing to victims of domestic abuse, Congress made changes to the Violence Against Women Act (VAWA). These changes affect all public housing residents and became effective January 5, 2006.

Dayton Housing Authority (DHA) will require male or female residents to certify to the incidents in which they claim they were victims of domestic abuse. DHA will not disclose the certificate information provided by the victim except as law permits.

In general, DHA may not terminate the lease of a resident who is certified victim of an actual or threatened incident of domestic abuse as defined by VAWA. Also, in general DHA may not terminate the lease of a certified victim for criminal activity that is directly related to domestic abuse.

The law allows you to fill out HUD-approved form 50066. Which is attached, or you may provide a police or court record, or you may have a professional person whom you consulted about the domestic violence, dating violence or stalking provide documentation. You must deliver the certificate in one of these three ways within 14 business days after your receipt of the housing authority's request for certification.

However, DHA may terminate the perpetrator's lease. Also, DHA may terminate the lease of a victim if there is an actual and immediate threat of harm to others or for other lease violations not based on domestic abuse.

If you think that you are a victim of actual or threatened domestic abuse or are facing lease violations for an actual or threatened domestic abuse incident, please contact DHA for more information on your rights under VAWA.

Purpose of Form: The Violence Against Women Act (“VAWA”) protects applicants, tenants, and program participants in certain HUD programs from being evicted, denied housing assistance, or terminated from housing assistance based on acts of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking against them. Despite the name of this law, VAWA protection is available to victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, and stalking, regardless of sex, gender identity, or sexual orientation.

Use of This Optional Form: If you are seeking VAWA protections from your housing provider, your housing provider may give you a written request that asks you to submit documentation about the incident or incidents of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.

In response to this request, you or someone on your behalf may complete this optional form and submit it to your housing provider, or you may submit one of the following types of third-party documentation:

- (1) A document signed by you and an employee, agent, or volunteer of a victim service provider, an attorney, or medical professional, or a mental health professional (collectively, “professional”) from whom you have sought assistance relating to domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking, or the effects of abuse. The document must specify, under penalty of perjury, that the professional believes the incident or incidents of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking occurred and meet the definition of “domestic violence,” “dating violence,” “sexual assault,” or “stalking” in HUD’s regulations at 24 CFR 5.2003.
- (2) A record of a Federal, State, tribal, territorial or local law enforcement agency, court, or administrative agency; or
- (3) At the discretion of the housing provider, a statement or other evidence provided by the applicant or tenant.

Submission of Documentation: The time period to submit documentation is 14 business days from the date that you receive a written request from your housing provider asking that you provide documentation of the occurrence of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. Your housing provider may, but is not required to, extend the time period to submit the documentation, if you request an extension of the time period. If the requested information is not received within 14 business days of when you received the request for the documentation, or any extension of the date provided by your housing provider, your housing provider does not need to grant you any of the VAWA protections. Distribution or issuance of this form does not serve as a written request for certification.

Confidentiality: All information provided to your housing provider concerning the incident(s) of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking shall be kept confidential and such details shall not be entered into any shared database. Employees of your housing provider are not to have access to these details unless to grant or deny VAWA protections to you, and such employees may not disclose this information to any other entity or individual, except to the extent that disclosure is: (i) consented to by you in writing in a time-limited release; (ii) required for use in an eviction proceeding or hearing regarding termination of assistance; or (iii) otherwise required by applicable law.
